KEEP is a statewide support program available to Oregon's resource, kinship, adoptive, and assisted guardian parents raising youth ages 2 and up

- Explore and share parenting strategies with support from your peers
- A 16-week group facilitated by trained group leaders
- Available in English, Spanish, ASL, and online
- KEEP is trauma-informed
- Participants can earn up to 24 training hours
- Receive $25/household for each session attended (up to $400)
- We will find a group that works for your schedule

Scan here to get connected

Culturally-specific and specialized groups available for parents caring for:

- LGBTQ+ youth
- Youth of a different culture, race, or ethnicity than themselves (transcultural)
- Native youth

Want to learn more? Visit our website: www.KEEPforFamilies.org/oregon

KEEP® Keeping Families Supported

Delivered in partnership with: OREGON DEPARTMENT OF Human Services